Students will leave with a completed painting. Participants must supply their own acrylic paints and brushes, canvases and instruction will be provided. Space is limited and sign-up is required. Come have some tasty treats and be creative! Stop by or contact Julie Mike for more information!

Baby Time

Calling all babies! Our Baby Time class is offering open enrollment! Miss Julie provides a half hour of songs, stories, and tips for babies 0-18 months and their parents. Classes are held Fridays at 9:30 and offer infants and their parents time to socialize with other families as well as promoting early literacy and cognitive development. Contact the library to sign up, or plan to attend a session! You'll be glad you did!

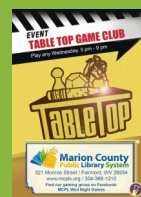

Life and Limb Exhibit

More than three million soldiers fought in the war from 1861-1865. More than half a million died, and almost as many were wounded but survived. Hundreds of thousands were permanently disabled by battlefield injuries or surgery, which saved lives by sacrificing limbs. Life and Limb: The Toll of the Civil War explores the experiences of disabled Civil War veterans who served as a symbol of the fractured nation and a stark reminder of the costs of the conflict.

Join us mid-March through April to view Life and Limb: The Toll of the Civil War. This exhibition was developed and produced by the National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health.

Wednesday Night Tabletop Game Group

Do you like to play games like Pandemic, Codenames, Seven Wonders, Quartz, or other European board games? Then join us at the main branch on Wednesday nights from 5 pm - 9 pm for our Tabletop Game Group!

Alternative, advanced and imaginative games will be featured. Bring your own to share! This event is open to adults and mature teens. Refreshments will be provided! Get your game on! Contact Dan Ward at 304-366-1210 for more Information, or join our Facebook group: MCPL Wed Night Games!

Awesome Readers Club (Teens)

Our teen book club will be taking a short break in the months of March and April! We will resume Monday, May 15 at 4:30 pm to discuss Ashes by Isla J. Bick!

Green Thumbs

Green grass, green thumbs... all part of welcoming back spring from the winter's cold. On March 18 from 10 am – 12 pm, Fairview local Dorothy Hood will be presenting her annual Q&A session on plants, gardening, and soil richness. No registration is required so why not stop in and get some free gardening tips from an expert?

Going Green

Also featured this month are two library displays: "Give Reading the Green Light" and "Girls Run the World." Our "Green Light" display showcases titles with green covers or "green" titles; "Girls" puts the spotlight on women authors in recognition of "Women's History Month."

Honey of a Prize

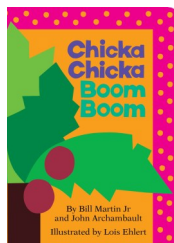

Throughout March, don't forget to put in your best guess at the Circulation Desk for our "Honey of a Prize" guessing game. Estimate how many Bit o' Honey candies are in the jar, be the closest without going over, and win!

Author, Author!

Spring is almost here and that means the library is gearing up for another semester of Toddler Time and Story Hour. Starting the week of March 13th, Ms. Morgan, Ms. Lee Ann, and Ms. Linda will be treating juvenile participants to children's author themed activities. This month, the spotlight is on the works of Dr. Seuss (One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish), Eric Carle (The Very Hungry Caterpillar), and Bill Martin, Jr. (Chicka Chicka Boom Boom).

Our coloring workshop for the month is "Reading 'Sham'rocks!"

Circle Time

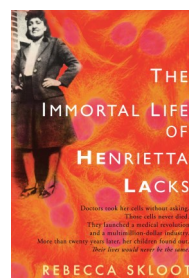

Beginning on March 7, Fairview Elementary students will once again return to the reading room for more silly and entertaining children's stories as part of Circle Time. The class that reads the most books from now until April 30th will be entered into a drawing to win a special treat in May.

Tuesday Nite Knitters

Join our weekly knitting group! We meet every Tuesday at 1 pm!

Speaking of Books

Speaking of Books will meet March 28 at 4 pm to discuss The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks by Rebecca Skloot.

Her name was Henrietta Lacks, but scientists know her as HeLa. She was a poor black tobacco farmer whose cells—taken without her knowledge in 1951—became one of the most important tools in medicine, vital for developing the polio vaccine, cloning, gene mapping, and more.

Henrietta's cells have been bought and sold by the billions, yet she remains virtually unknown, and her family can't afford health insurance. This New York Times bestseller tells a story of the collision between ethics, race, and medicine; of scientific discovery and faith healing; and of a daughter consumed with questions about the mother she never knew. -Amazon

What Do You Know About That? Trivia

Our monthly trivia contest, "What Do You Know about That?," continues on March 30 from 9 am – 4 pm with a special "NCAA Basketball and St. Patrick's Day Edition." A prize sponsored by Hometown Hot Dogs will be awarded to the individual with the top score. Patrons ages 14 and up are eligible to participate.

The Homeroom with the most toppings at the end of the month will win a pizza party.

Cover2Cover

March 16 at 1:30.

This month's title:

Mennonite in a Little Black Dress by Rhoda Janzen.

Not long after Rhoda Janzen turned forty, her world turned upside down. It was bad enough that her husband of fifteen years left her for Bob, a guy he met on Gay.com, but that same week a car accident left her injured. Needing a place to rest and pick up the pieces of her life, Rhoda packed her bags, crossed the country, and returned to her quirky Mennonite family's home, where she was welcomed back with open arms and offbeat advice. (Rhoda's good-natured mother suggested she get over her heartbreak by dating her first cousin—he owned a tractor, see.)

Fiction Addiction

The Fiction Addiction Teen Book Club will meet Monday, March 13 at 3:30 pm. This month's title is Caraval by Stephanie Garber.

Scarlett has never left the tiny island where she and her beloved sister, Tella, live with their powerful, and cruel, father. Now Scarlett's father has arranged a marriage for her, and Scarlett thinks her dreams of seeing Caraval, the far-away, once-a-year performance where the audience participates in the show, are over.

But this year, Scarlett's long-dreamt of invitation finally arrives. Tella whisks Scarlett away to the show, but as soon as they arrive, Tella is kidnapped by Caraval's mastermind organizer. It turns out that this season's Caraval revolves around Tella, and whoever finds her first is the winner.

Scarlett has been told that everything that happens during Caraval is only an elaborate performance. But she nevertheless becomes enmeshed in a game of love, heartbreak, and magic with the other players in the game. And whether Caraval is real or not, she must find Tella before the five nights of the game are over, a dangerous domino effect of consequences is set off, and her sister disappears forever. -Amazon

Marion Libearian, the town librarian

Hello All!

March is upon us, the windy month. The library is all a flutter with new material arriving daily. As we look for hints of spring, you can be sure to find something new for you at the library.

There is much to look forward to in the coming months. We are excited to be working with MedExpress with several upcoming events. Look for their program this month as well as one for the upcoming Summer Reading Program.

May the month of March find you happy and a little bit of St Patty's day luck.
