TEEN READ WEEK October 18-24, 2015

Teens can “Get Away” at the Marion County Public Library System during Teen Read Week! Stop by your library today to find something great to read, just for the fun of it! We have a little something for everyone, including fantasy titles, adventure books, sci-fi stories and more.

An annual celebration held by The Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA), Teen Read Week is a time to celebrate reading for fun while encouraging teens to take advantage of reading in all its forms —books, magazines, e-books, audiobooks and more!

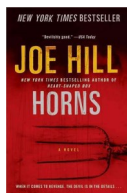

Check with your branch to see how they will be celebrating Teen Read Week 2015!

Spooktacular Fun Available at the Library

Branch Manager's Spotlight By Janna Russell Fairview Public Library

October is here – my favorite month! That means that Halloween will soon be upon us. Spooky stories, scary movies, costume parties, trick-or-treating, pumpkin carving... any number of ways to get you into the holiday spirit.

For those of you looking to get your fright on this month, check out one or more of these books or movies from MCPLS: The Exorcist by William Peter Blatty, Ghost Story by Peter Straub, The Haunting of Hill House by Shirley Jackson, The Shining by Stephen King, Horns by Joe Hill, or The Complete Fiction of H.P. Lovecraft.

We also have The Ring, It Follows, Cabin in the Woods, 28 Days Later, The Descent, Paranormal Activity, and Sinister on DVD if you're hoping to view something scary.

You can also delve into your creative side by using a variety of ideas found in 101

Spooktacular Party Ideas, Country Living Happy Halloween, Halloween Fun – 101 Ways to Get in the Spirit, Pumpkin Chic – Decorating with Pumpkins and Gourds, or Scarecrows – Making Harvest Figures and Other Yard Folks.

And you can treat the kiddies to some Halloween fun in the pages of It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown by Charles M. Schulz, The Night before Halloween by Natasha Wing, Scaredy-Cat, Splat! by Rob Scotton, or There Was an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Bat by Lucille Colandro.

There's plenty of entertainment to scare up at the library this month, so make it spooktacular!

Reading is Spooktacular

It's all about "Dinosaurs" and "Halloween Fun" in October with Ms. Julie's children's programs. Activities include making fossils and going on a dinosaur hunt, making spooky Halloween crafts, and playing Halloween games.

On October 29th, Story Hour participants will be trick-or-treated to a "Halloween Party" and are encouraged to wear costumes.

Speaking of Books Club

Speaking of Books will meet October 27 to discuss Zero Day by David Baldacci.

John Puller is a combat veteran and the best military investigator in the U.S. Army's Criminal Investigation Division. His father was an Army fighting legend, and his brother is serving a life sentence for treason in a federal military prison. Puller has an indomitable spirit and an unstoppable drive to find the truth.

Now, Puller is called out on a case in a remote, rural area in West Virginia coal country far from any military outpost. Someone has stumbled onto a brutal crime scene, a family slaughtered. As Puller digs through deception after deception, he realizes that absolutely nothing he's seen in this small town, and no one in it, are what they seem. —Amazon

Reaching Out

In recognition of years of service by our many veterans, the Fairview Library will be sponsoring a drive for a collection of various items to be donated to the West Virginia Veterans Nursing Facility in Clarksburg in honor of local veteran and WVVNF resident, Willie King.

The drive will run October 13 through November 13th. A list of approved items for donation will be posted at the library. Show your support for our local veterans by making a donation today

After School Movie

The "After School Movie" will be held on October 20th, and Cinderella will be the feature. Pre-registration is required and can be completed over the phone or in person. A light snack will be provided, and those coming directly from school will be able to walk to the library with a member of the library staff.

Teen Tuesday

Ms. Julie will be presenting another teen activity on October 6th from 4 pm – 5 pm: creating personal poetry pages. Patrons ages 12-18 are invited!

Fiction Addiction Book Club: Grades 5-8

October 19 @ 4:30. This month:
Obsidian* by Jennifer Armentrout.

Starting over sucks. When we moved to West Virginia right before my senior year, I'd pretty much resigned myself to thick accents, dodgy internet access, and a whole lot of boring.... until I spotted my hot neighbor, with his looming height and eerie green eyes.

Things were looking up. And then he opened his mouth. Daemon is infuriating. Arrogant. Stab-worthy. We do not get along. At all. But when a stranger attacks me and Daemon literally freezes time with a wave of his hand, well, something... unexpected happens. The hot alien living next door marks me. You heard me. Alien. —Amazon

Teen Tuesday, for all teens ages 12-17, October 27 at 4pm. We will be featuring Avengers: Age of Ultron for your viewing enjoyment. Complementary snacks included.

SaturGanza

October's SaturGanza will include stories, a scavenger hunt, games and snacks for pre-school and elementary age children. Come early and stay as long as you can Saturday, October 17 from 10 am to 12 pm.

Story Time

Story-time is a pre-school program instilling the love of reading into our 2-5 year olds. This month Miss Julie and the children will learn about dinosaurs, fossils, and go on a dino scavenger hunt. The program is every Wednesday at 10:30. To register call 304-986-2803 (space is limited)

Halloween at the Library

Join us for a spooky magical time at the Mannington Public Library. Wear your favorite costume and enjoy games, crafts, activities, and snacks after hours, Friday, October 30 from 6-8 pm if you dare! At 7 pm, you'll be amazed by magician, illusionist, and ventriloquist Dave Powers as he performs spooky feats and magical tricks! The entire evening is kid friendly, and it's all free.

Everyone is welcome, so plan to come early and stay late! For more information contact the library at 304-986-2903.

Glorious Women Never Age

We're all getting older. "How you are going to age is your decision... Don't battle aging when you can dance with life!" Join us for a viewing of Dr. Christiane Northrup's Glorious Women Never Age! We invite women of all ages to bring a bag lunch and gain a positive approach to growing older October 20 at 12 pm.

Cover2Cover

October 15 @ 1:30. This month's title:
The Night of the Hunter* by Davis Grubb.

Inspired by serial killer Harry Powers, "The Bluebeard of Quiet Dell," who was hung in 1932 for his murders of two widows and three children.

This best-selling novel, first published in 1953 to wide acclaim by author Grubb, (who, like Powers, lived in Clarksburg, West Virginia), served as the basis for Charles Laughton's noir classic . Renamed "Harry Powell," the lead character in this book, with LOVE and HATE tattooed on his fingers, is remembered as one of the creepiest men in book and cinema history.

Blackshere Pizza Party

We're celebrating Blackshere Elementary's third grade class the month of October! Each time a third grade student visits the library the month of October we will give them a pizza topping representing their homeroom for each item they check out. The class with the most toppings will win a Little Ceasars' Pizza Party and a special story read by Ms. Julie, compliments of the library.

Marion Libearian, the town librarian

Hello All!

October is sweeping in with a gust of warm fall winds. The leaves are turning to their more colorful wardrobe and pumpkins are popping up all around.

Halloween is, of course, the grand feature of October, full of 'spooktacular' fun and events. The library will be busy with their annual Halloween events. All the wonderful costumes, fun games, delightful treats and fun puppet show. Also be sure to check out all the scary fun items the library has to offer, such as great scary stories, craft books, spine chilling movies, and much more to be sure to haunt your Halloween fun!

Enjoy this festive time of year as fall rushes in, bringing in the delightful autumn season!
