M is For Movies

Sure, you've seen the movie, but have you read the book that was its inspiration?

Most people are familiar with Harry Potter, Hunger Games, Gone with the Wind, and the Jason Bourne series that have spawned popular films, but what about lesser known gems such as John Le Carré's A Most Wanted Man starring Philip Seymour Hoffman, Jonathan Tropper's This Is Where I Leave You starring Tina Fey and Jason Bateman, or Gillian Flynn's Dark Places starring Charlize Theron?

If you're curious about these titles, come check out our "Movie 'May'nia" display and take one or more home today! Not only can you rent the movie, but you can read its source material as well.

May You Always Be a Reader

Another spring semester of Toddler Time, Story Hour, and Circle Time draws to a close in May. But, there is still plenty of fun to be had until then with Look! Fish! and In the Ocean for our preschoolers, including a special finale on May 9 at 10 am at the Fairview Fire Hall. One lucky class from Fairview Elementary's "Circle Time" sessions will receive a special treat as part of the "Circle Time Reading Club."

Beekeeping

If you're more of the outdoors type, stop by on May 22 at 3 pm and listen to a fascinating program presented by Amy and Otto Kaiser of the Marion County Beekeepers' Association. They'll be talking about what it takes to be a beekeeper and the plight of bees in our current climate and showing off a number of beekeeping implements as well as a sample hive. This event is free and open to the public.

What Do You Know About That? Trivia Contest

May is also National Mother Goose Month so to recognize the author of our favorite nursery rhymes, we're offering the "Mother Goose Edition" of our "What Do You Know about That? Trivia Contest" on May 31st from 9 am – 4 pm. The entrant with the highest number of correct answers wins a prize!

Cook-a-Book

May is also a time for celebration – May Day, Cinco de Mayo, Mother's Day, Memorial Day, to name a few – but did you know that it's National Chicken Month? In honor of this little known observance, Ms. Ashley will be presenting the spring installment of "Cook-a-Book: There's Nobody Here But Us Chickens" on May 23rd at 3:30 pm.

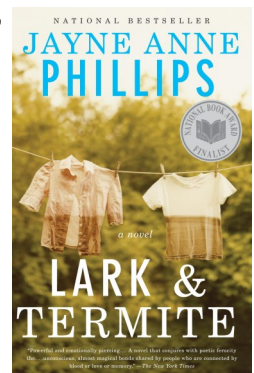

During this program for children in grades K - 5, there will be stories, games, and a DIY snack all centered around our fine-feathered friends. Space is limited so registration is required and can be completed by contacting the Fairview Public Library at 304-449-1021.

Hubba Hubba Jar

The Circulation Desk guessing game this month is the "Hubba Hubba Jar." Determine how many Hubba Bubba bubblegums are in the jar, be the closest without going over, and win!

Speaking of Books

Our monthly book club, "Speaking of Books," meets on May 22 to discuss Jayne Anne Phillips' Lark and Termite.

Set in the 1950s in West Virginia and Korea, it is a story of the power of loss and love, the echoing ramifications of war, family secrets, dreams and ghosts, and the unseen, almost magical bonds that unite and sustain us.

Friends of the Library

Tips For Spring Cleaning Your Bookshelves (Because It's Time To Make Space For More Books):

1. Donate used books at The Friends Book Sale; open every Friday 10:00-4:30 and Saturday 9:00-1:00.
2. Finally read your TBR pile.
3. Reorganize your shelves...

Friends membership campaign for 2018. Friends of the Mannington Public Library encourage library awareness, promote use of the library, and encourage reading and life-long learning. They promote library activities, enrich the programs of the library, and raise funds. Become a Friend, and with your annual membership enable the library to share with the community. For more information please pick up a postcard at the Mannington Public Library.

Van Gogh & Goodies

Carol's Creative Quilling Class for the Van Gogh & Goodies crowd Monday, May 14 at 5:00 pm.

Quilling or paper filigree is an art form that involves the use of strips of paper that are rolled, shaped, and glued together to create decorative designs. The paper is rolled, looped, curled, twisted and otherwise manipulated to create shapes which make up designs to decorate greetings cards, pictures, boxes, eggs, and to make models, jewelry, mobiles etc.

Toddler Time & Story Time

It's going to be a BUBBLY Graduation for our Story Time children. Miss Janet and Miss Carol are planning a Bubble Party and lunch for their little graduates, May 2 at 10:30.

May 1st will be the finale spring program for Toddler Time. Please register for next fall and we'll all have another great year.

Scheduled to resume in September; stories, crafts, games, and interactive themes promise to be fun for all. Please call the library (304) 986-2803 for more information regarding "Toddler Time" a program for children up to 3 years of age that meets on Tuesdays, and "Story Time" a program for children 2-5 years of age that meets on Wednesdays at 10:30 am.

Fiction Addiction

Pick up your copy of Shadowshaper by Daniel Jose Older and join "Fiction Addiction" a book club for teens on Monday, May 7 at 3:30 p.m.

"Sierra Santiago was looking forward to a fun summer of making art, hanging out with her friends, and skating around Brooklyn. But then a weird zombie guy crashes the first party of the season. Sierra's near-comatose abuelo begins to say "Lo siento" over and over. And when the graffiti murals in Bed-Stuy start to weep.... Well, something stranger than the usual New York mayhem is going on.

Sierra soon discovers a supernatural order called the Shadowshapers, who connect with spirits via paintings, music, and stories. Her grandfather once shared the order's secrets with an anthropologist, Dr. Jonathan Wick, who turned the Caribbean magic to his own foul ends. Now Wick wants to become the ultimate Shadowshaper by killing all the others, one by one. With the help of her friends and the hot graffiti artist Robbie, Sierra must dodge Wick's supernatural creations, harness her own Shadowshaping abilities, and save her family's past, present, and future.

Cover2Cover

Pick up your copy of The Tragedy of Brady Sims by Ernest J. Gaines and join the "Cover 2 Cover" book club on Thursday, May 17 at 1:30 p.m.

After Brady Sims pulls out a gun in a courtroom and shoots his own son, who has just been convicted of robbery and murder, he asks only to be allowed two hours before he'll give himself up to the sheriff. When the editor of the local newspaper asks his cub reporter to dig up a "human interest" story about Brady, he heads for the town's barbershop. It is the barbers and the regulars who hang out there who narrate with empathy, sadness, humor, and a profound understanding the life story of Brady Sims—an honorable, just, and unsparing man who with his tough love had been handed the task of keeping the black children of Bayonne, Louisiana in line to protect them from the unjust world in which they lived. And when his own son makes a fateful mistake, it is up to Brady to carry out the necessary reckoning. In the telling, we learn the story of a small southern town, divided by race, and the black community struggling to survive even as many of its inhabitants head off northwards during the Great Migration.

Hello All!

It's the merry month of May! The beauty of spring has truly arrived! With the coming of spring, wonderful celebrations of festivals and events are everywhere! Such a delightful time of year with flowers in bloom, the warmth of the sun and promise of a fun filled summer!

As always, the library has new materials blossoming all over. From our popular online options to the newest books and movies as they hit the shelves, there is always something new almost weekly. Be sure to visit often, you know what budding delights you'll find.

I can BEARLY contain myself thinking of the Summer Reading program. This year promises to be an amazing county wide event. There will be something for all ages to enjoy!
