LIBRARIES ROCK!

It's time for our favorite time of the year: summer reading! And this year, summer reading will be even more fun, as all of our branches combine into one big celebration!

The 2018 summer reading program, the musically themed "Libraries Rock!" will run June 23—July 21 with programs for Toddlers (ages 18–36 months, Fairmont only), Pre-K, K-5, Teens (grades 6-12), and adults!

We have a lot of surprises in store, including our first ever county wide kickoff party (see left)! Head there on June 23 with your library card to get registered, or visit your branch after that date to sign up and get your cool MCPLS reusable summer reading bag!

For more information about this year's summer reading program, visit summer.mcpls.org! Rock on! We are so excited to spend the summer with you and your family!

Fairmont

Treasure in the Stacks: An Escape Room Experience

Join us in June to solve the mystery of legendary jazz singer Ella E. Reader.

Unfortunately Ella recently gave her "final performance", and revealed in her last will that she hid her fortune in the basement of the old library, leaving clues that only a true music lover could unravel. Recent budget cuts have closed the library and it is soon to be demolished to make room for a Starbucks.

Your team of adventurers has one hour to locate the hidden fortune before the wrecking ball arrives to bury it forever. Can you find the treasure and save the library from destruction? Can you find the Treasure in the Stacks? Due to the complexity of the puzzles, only recommended for teens 15+ and adults. To register, please visit www.mcpls.org and click on events, or call 304-366-1210.

Sponsored by The Friends of the Marion County Public Library

Artile: Art & Dessert

Part of our summer reading program! Join us Friday, June 29 at 5 pm to create your own masterpiece on sheet music while listening to different musical styles.

Limited to 15 people, registration required. Call the library or visit this link to sign up: bit.ly/2xc76vf

Awesome Readers Club

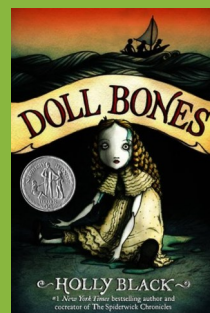

We'll be meeting Monday, June 11 at 5 pm to discuss Annihilation by Jeff VanderMeer. Stop by to pick up a copy today!

Describes the 12th expedition to "Area X," a region cut off from the continent for decades, by a group of intrepid women scientists who try to ignore the high mortality rates of those on the previous 11 missions.

'Tween the Pages

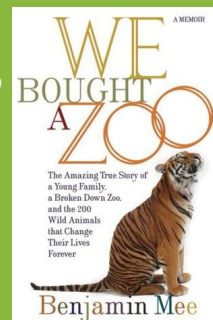

Students in grades 5-8: We'll be meeting Monday, June 11 at 3:30 pm to discuss Doll Bones by Holly Black. Stop by the front desk to check out a copy today!

Playing an endless make-believe game about pirates, mermaids and warriors under the rule of a formidable Great Queen china doll, best friends Zach, Poppy and Alice find their bond tested when Zach is compelled to give up their shared adventures and Poppy begins having dreams about the doll.

Book It

Join us Tuesday, June 12 at 6 pm to discuss We Bought a Zoo by Benjamin Mee. So if you would like to read outside your comfort zone, as well as have some great conversation and tasty treats, pick up your book and register today!

"A former British newspaper columnist describes how he uprooted his family to the English countryside and purchased a dilapidated zoo, home to more than two hundred exotic animals, which he planned to refurbish and reopen as a family business, a scheme complicated by a lack of money, skeptical staff, family tension, and his wife's devastating illness." -Amazon

Reading Music

If you'd like to read some titles with a musical flavor, check out our "June Tunes" display.

There are biographical offerings such as Remembering Whitney about the life of Whitney Houston and Who I Am by The Who's guitarist, Pete Townshend. Or, if fiction's more of your thing, why not try Frog Music by Emma Donoghue, The Unfinished Sonata by K.D. McCrite, or The Love Song of Miss Queenie Hennessy by Rachel Joyce.

Raise a Glass

Back by popular demand and before summer reading's in full swing, we're again offering the "Raise a Glass Adult Crafternoon" on June 19 at 5:30 pm. For those who missed out on the fun during our April session, we've got room for you here. But remember – due to the limited number of spaces, registration is required so be sure to contact the Fairview Public Library or visit bit.ly/2rUg4s3 to get on the "guest list."

Summer Reading Rocks

June is here, and summer reading is back! The theme is "Libraries Rock!" so we've got loads of fun-filled, music-themed activities for all ages. This year, we're doing a countywide registration kickoff on Saturday, June 23 from 11 am - 3 pm at the new Fairmont Armory on Morgantown Avenue. There will be plenty of excitement with games, food, crafts, and activities for toddlers, children, teens, and adults.

During this time all registrants will receive their registration packets complete with a schedule of events and music-themed goodies. Beginning with children's programs, we're featuring a variety of sessions for two age groups: PreK (ages 3-6) and K-5 (ages 7-11). Our Pre-K groups will be treated to "Reading Rocks!" the week of June 25 while our K-5 group is invited to join us for "Elvis and the Cornstalk" and "Pop Rocks!" And, our coloring workshop is "Reading Rocks!"

Fun for Teens & Adults

As with all summer reading programs, the fun's not just for kids. Teens and adults can also participate in a variety of lyrical activities. For teens, there's "Music in Motion: Lip Sync Battle" during the week of June 25, and adults can get their groove on with "I've Got the Music in Me."

What Do You Know About That? Trivia Contest

Keeping with the musical theme, the spotlight of our "What Do You Know about That? Trivia Contest" on June 28 is the "Music Box Edition." The contestant with the most correct answers wins a prize!

Take My Life(savers)

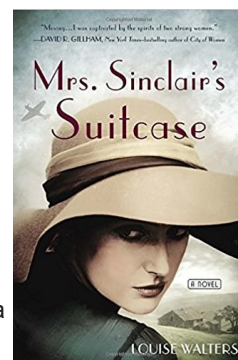

Our Circulation Desk guessing game is "Take My Life(savers), Please!" The participant who comes closest to guessing the number of Lifesavers in the jar without going over wins!

Speaking of Books

Our monthly book club, "Speaking of Books," meets on June 26 to discuss Louise Walters' Mrs. Sinclair's Suitcase

"Roberta, a lonely thirty-four-year-old bibliophile, works at The Old and New Bookshop in England. When she finds a letter inside her centenarian grandmother's battered old suitcase that hints at a dark secret, her understanding of her family's history is completely upturned. Running alongside Roberta's narrative is that of her grandmother, Dorothy, as a forty-year-old childless woman desperate for motherhood during the early years of World War II. After a chance encounter with a Polish war pilot, Dorothy believes she's finally found happiness, but must instead make an unthinkable decision whose consequences forever change the framework of her family." -Amazon

Cover2Cover

Pick up your copy of Far as the Eye Can See by Robert Bausch at the Mannington Public Library and join the "Cover 2 Cover" book club on Thursday, June 21 at 1:30 p.m.

"Bobby Hale is a Union veteran several times over. After the war, he sets his sights on California, but only makes it to Montana. As he stumbles around the West, from the Wyoming Territory to the Black Hills of the Dakotas, he finds meaning in the people he meets-settlers and native people-and the violent history he both participates in and witnesses. Far as the Eye Can See is the story of life in a place where every minute is an engagement in a kind of war of survival, and how two people-a white man and a mixed-race woman-in the midst of such majesty and violence can manage to find a pathway to their own humanity."

Fiction Addiction

Fiction Addiction is taking a break for the summer. If you are interested joining this teen book club, pick up a copy of Three Dark Crowns by Kendare Blake at the Mannington Public Library and join us in September for the discussion, crafts, and FOOD!
