LISTEN & ENJOY WITH VOX

Print book, meet audio book. VOX Books are the world's first audio books that live in print books. The permanently attached VOX Reader transforms an ordinary print book into an all-in-one read-along. There's no need for computers, tablets or CDs. Children simply push a button to listen and read.

VOX Books combine outstanding picture books and non-fiction with audio recordings that capture children's attention and make learning and literacy development fun! We're starting out with 75 VOX Books, so check one out today!

To put one on hold, search for VOX Books on our online catalog, or try this quick link:
<http://bit.ly/2Q1J9fo>

Features:

- Hardcover book with full audio recording. Simply push a button to listen and read, from beginning to end.
- Speaker for parent + child or group listening plus earphone jack for individual use.
- Fully portable read-along with rechargeable battery provides 100+ listens before recharge. No data or Wi-Fi required.
- 'Kid tough' design

Vox Titles Include:

- Bulldozer's Big Day
- Cloudy with Chance of Meatballs
- Goodnight Moon
- Hey Black Child
- Jabari Jumps
- Mr. Tiger Goes Wild
- The Nuts: Keep Rolling
- Read the book, Lemmings!

...and more!

Studies show that read-alongs improve reading comprehension.

Halloween Family Fun

It's that time again! Once again the library welcomes you through our doors after the library has closed for the day for an evening of Halloween fun.

The event will take place on Friday, October 26, at 6:15 pm. Carnival style games and creepy crafts await you. The Haunted Library area will be open for those brave enough to go through our own special version of a (not so scary) Haunted House.

Wear your best costumes for the costume contest. Spooky scary skeletons are warming up for their dance number in a puppet show full of magic, monsters, witches and more. Join us for another wonderful Halloween event at the Marion County Public Library, full of spooktacular surprises!

Etta Zasloff Children's Book Signing

Author Etta Zasloff will be visiting the library Saturday, October 20 from 1 pm—2 pm to sign copies of her children's book

Beginning with Xs and

Os: The Evolution of the Alphabet. For more information, please visit: www.ettazasloff.com

NaNoWriMo is Coming

NaNoWriMo is National Novel Writing Month, which is the month of November. During that month, participants write—or attempt to write—a novel! At MCPL, we will be participating in the NaNoWriMo Young Writers Program (YWP), which is a version of NaNoWriMo for students.

Anyone can participate in NaNoWriMo. Our NaNoWriMo YWP group at MCPL will be open to students in grades 4 through 12 (up to age 17).

New Hours:

Starting Monday, October 1, the Fairview Public Library will be operating under the following hours:

Monday: 10 am — 5 pm
Tuesday: 10 am — 7 pm
Wednesday: 10 am — 5 pm
Thursday: 10 am — 5 pm
Friday: 9 am — 1 pm
Saturday: 9 am — 1 pm

Fall into Children's Programs

During October our Toddler Time and Story Hour children will enjoy stories and activities featuring the themes of "Leaves, Leaves, Leaves," "We Love Camping," "Spookley the Pumpkin," and "Harvests and Hayrides." During the Spookley sessions, we encourage participants to come dressed in their favorite costumes and enjoy trick-or-treating with the library staff.

We'll also have a few Halloween-themed stories for Fairview Elementary's "Circle Time" students each week.

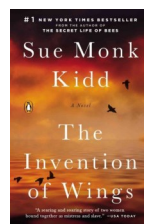

Ghostly Tales

For those of you looking for an evening of goosebumps and raised hair, join us at 5:30 pm on October 23 for "Ghostly Tales with Jo Ann Dadisman." Ms. Dadisman is the same storyteller who brought Appalachian folk tales to the county's summer reading classes this year, and now she's back to serve up some local spine-tingling ghost stories to set the mood for Halloween.

This event is free and open to the public, no sign-up required.

Speaking of Books

Our monthly book club, "Speaking of Books," meets on October 23 at 4 pm to discuss The Invention of Wings by Sue Monk Kidd.

Helping Out

If you'd like to donate to those in need in our community, the library will once again be sponsoring the Mitten Tree Drive beginning October 5.

We will be collecting various items of children's winter clothing (underwear, mittens, gloves, scarves, hats, earmuffs, etc.) to be donated to Fairview Elementary. Every donation matters, and we thank you in advance for your support!

Friends Book Sale

The Friends of the Fairview Public Library are hosting their annual Fall Book Sale this month so be sure to stop by for some great deals on print and A/V items all month long!

What Do You Know About That? Trivia Contest

October 25th's trivia contest theme is "Book It to the Movies." With so many past and present bestsellers being turned into films, we want to see how many authors you can match with their page-to-screen originals. Patrons ages 14-up are eligible to participate, and the participant with the most correct answers wins a prize!

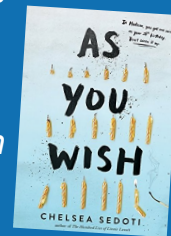

It's Written in the Stars

Another "Teen Read Week" is upon us from October 7 – 13, and this year's theme is "It's Written in the Stars." Our teens' display will shine the spotlight on science fiction and fantasy YA titles such as All the Major Constellations by Pratima Cranse, Crater by Homer Hickam, We All Looked Up by Tommy Wallach, and As You Wish by Chelsea Sedoti to name a few. "Teen Read Week" is also "Fine Free Week" so be sure to get those overdue library items returned and their fines waived!

In honor of National Book Month, we're continuing our "Get Checked Out at the Library" entryway display so there are still plenty of literary-themed titles to circulate.

Having a Junior Mome-MINT Game

And, there's yet another candy guessing game at the Circulation Desk – "Having a Junior Mome-Mint." Guess how many Junior Mints are in the jar, be the closest without going over, and win!

Toddler Time & Story Time

Miss Janet and Miss Carol have brewed up a mess of dogs, squirrels, and party fun for this month!

Learning to read begins before children start school. From the time they are infants, children learn language and other important skills that will help them learn to read. Developing early literacy skills makes it easier for children to learn to read once they begin school.

Fall sessions for TFriends of Toddler Time a program for children up to 3 years of age meets on Tuesdays at 10:30 am, and Story Time a program for children 2-5 years of age meets on Wednesdays at 10:30.

You may register when you are visiting the library, or by calling 304-986-2803. We thank you for registering, so we can be prepared for you!

Van Gogh and Goodies

When life gives you lemons... Paint? Join Carol October 29; we're excited to get creative with "Fire Art" exclusively for Adults at 5:00 pm.

Friends of the Library

LEAF through some great used books this fall! Friends Book Sale is open every week Friday 10-4 and Saturday 9-1.

WV Ghosts: Stories & Ballads

From the hills and hollows of the mountains come tales strange, mysterious and even historic to chill your bones and tingle your spine.

West Virginia storyteller, ballad singer, and author Granny Sue shares stories and songs of haunted places, unquiet graves, and unexplained events.

October 22, at 5:30 pm. Presentation intended for a family audience with children 8 years of age and up. Attendees are encouraged to come in costume. Prizes will be provided by Friends of the Mannington Library.

Cover2Cover

Pick up your copy of The Heart is a Lonely Hunter by Carson McCullers and join the "Cover 2 Cover" book club at the Mannington Public Library on Thursday, October 18 at 1:30 p.m.

Fiction Addiction

Fiction Addiction is books, food and FUN! If you are interested joining this teen book club, pick up a copy of Wild Beauty by Anna-Marie McLemore and join us October 15 at 3:30 for the book discussion, craft and FOOD!

3D Printing:

Thursday, October 25, 3:30 pm

In this project, you can draw a 2D drawing and turn it into a 3D print. Participants will be able to pick up their 3D printed objects the week following this program. This program is designed for 4th grade and up.

Limited to 12 people, call 304-986-2803 to sign up, or follow this link: <http://bit.ly/2NHvoVX>

It's Pizza Party Time!

We received a lot of positive feedback from students and parents, so we're offering the "pizza parties" once again. The staff of the Mannington Public Library wishes to celebrate Blackshire's third grade class during the month of October.

Anytime a teacher or student visits the library and checks out library materials, we will add one pizza topping for each item checked-out to our large pizza pie on our bulletin board. The homeroom that loads up our pizza with the most toppings will receive a pizza party and a story provided by the Mannington Public Library.

WEEKLY CONTEST! Play every time you visit to win prizes and enter the drawing for the Grand Prize!

Week 1: Spin-the-Wheel
Week 2: Fishing for Prizes
Week 3: Can of Worms
Week 4: Lucky Lollipops

Marion Libearian, the town librarian

Hello All!

Things are getting spooky! It's that time of year for Halloween fun! The library is preparing for their annual family fun night. October is definitely welcoming the fall season in with a flourish.

October is a great month to check out all the new items at the library. We have something for everyone! You can check out one of our spooky fun movies for a creepy Halloween movie night or search our shelves for a real spine chilling book.

The month ushers in the autumn season full of delights! Welcome October!
