December 2019
Volume 14 | Issue 12

White Hall Express

The wait is over! We have opened up the White Hall Express for a "soft opening" as of Monday, November 25. You are now able to check out items that are housed in the unit and return library materials.

If you stop by and use it: please let us know what you think, and if you encountered any issues, so that we can address them. We will announce our grand opening and ribbon cutting date once we are sure that everything is working perfectly! Thank you again for all of your support and kind words!

- Open 24/7
- Holds 235 titles
- Will offer new release DVDs, Video Games, Books (including YA, kids books, & Large Print), and Graphic Novels
- Patrons can return any item to the kiosk, and will eventually be able to have their holds sent there to pick up.

Located at 118 Tygart Valley Mall, between the White Hall Town Hall Building and Tygart Valley Cinemas.

For more information, visit

The Great Courses

Did you write a book during NaNoWriMo (National Novel Writing Month)? If so, The Great Courses may have the class for you!

In the 24 eye-opening lectures of How to Publish Your Book, Jane Friedman, publishing industry expert and educator, provides you with sought-after secrets of the publishing process that will help you navigate this difficult progression, bypass pitfalls that many novice authors get hung up on, and improve your chances of being considered for publication.

She provides the candid scoop on what you need to do in order to increase your chances of being considered. The knowledge you'll gain by having an inside expert teaching you how to position your book for publication gives you a unique advantage and drastically increases your chances of getting noticed in this increasingly competitive industry.

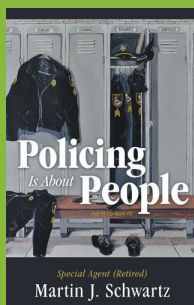

You can find the Great Courses on Kanopy! Kanopy is available on most devices, including Roku, Chromecast, and FireTV.

"Policing is About People" Civic Lab

Sat., December 7
1 pm – 2 pm

Please join us for this Civic Lab event to promote greater discussion and shared understanding in our community.

"The Police are the People and the People are the Police. At least that's what we want them to be."
- Martin J. Schwartz

Special Agent (retired) Martin J. Schwartz spent more than 40 years at the federal, state, and local levels of law enforcement, and is a veteran of the United States Air Force, where he served honorably in the Security Police. His book Policing About People discusses the constitutional guarantees afforded to the people at the core of all police-citizen interactions.

Unafraid to speak candidly Schwartz discusses race and bias, fear, cynicism, officer-involved shootings, and the mental health and wellness of officers. The title of the book is the theme of the book as all of these crucial issues involve people. His chapter entitled "The Expendables in America" is about the people living in Marcellus Shale regions, and his view that fracking is less about energy and the environment than it is about people.

Most importantly, Special Agent (retired) Schwartz discusses ways in which we can make policing smarter and safer for both the police and the citizenry.

Come to the quintessential 'whodunnit' thriller at the estate of Sir Warren Peace and get thrown into a night of mystery, intrigue, and murder you will never forget! The talented actors at the Murder Mystery Company will pull the audience into their Old Hollywood themed dastardly game of intrigue. Who is the guilty party? Is it one of our performers, one of your table mates...or is it you!!"

The price for this year's event is $20 per person. Reserve your ticket online starting Monday, December 30 at 9 am. Ticket pick up and payment begins Monday, January 6 at 9 am.

Fairview

500 Main Street
Fairview, WV 26570
304-449-1021

Babies, Toddlers, and Preschoolers: OH MY!

NEW: Beginning February 3rd we will be offering Baby Time every Monday at 10:15. Join Miss Megan for 30 minutes of songs, stories, bouncy rhymes and more. Early language and literacy skills are learned best by reading, talking, laughing and playing with your child. Socialization is also very important for the emotional development of young children. Singing and rhyming naturally slows down our speech, breaking it into syllables that help a young child learn words.

Baby Time is a chance for parents to bond, children to socialize, and both to have fun and interact with each other.

NEW: Miss Julie will be offering an additional Toddler Time class beginning Wednesday, February 5 at 10:00 am. This class will feature interactive songs, stories, games, crafts and snacks for children ages 18 mo-3 yrs. The class is limited to 15, so registration is required.

Our Monday Toddler Time class has additional spots available. This class will resume February 3rd at 11:00 am, so please call or stop by to register.

Registration for Baby Time and Toddler Times will begin January 2, and can be done by visiting our website, stopping by the Fairview Public Library, or calling us at 304-449-1021.

NEW TIME: Beginning February 5, Story hour will be starting at 11:30 am to accommodate our new Toddler Time class. Please make a note of this.

Holiday Ornaments

Kids, stop in at the Fairview Public Library beginning December 2 to create an ornament to decorate our tree. After the holidays, you may take your masterpiece home to use on your own tree next year!

Parade & Party

Join us as we celebrate the holidays with the Fairview community on December 21st! The fun begins with the annual Christmas parade at 5 pm, then continues at the Fire Department with a spectacular family fun event from 6-8 pm featuring crafts, snacks, games, a bouncy house for the kids, and a visit from Santa!

Calling All Little Artists

Kids are invited to join Little Rembrandts, a new beginning painting class for ages 8-13. These bi-monthly classes will begin January 4 at 12 pm. The class is free and all materials will be provided. Create your masterpiece and have some fun with us! Check with the front desk or go to our website to register.

Homeschoolers Welcome

The Fairview Public Library will be starting Exploration + in February. This is a supplemental program to compliment homeschool families with kids in K-4. You do not have to be part of a co-op to participate.

Our first class will be Monday, February 10 at 1 pm. This will be a 'meet and greet' for interested parents/kids to introduce the program, exchange ideas, and socialize. Registration is recommended, but not mandatory. You can visit our website, call, or stop by the library to sign up.

NEW: Book Worms

Book Worms Book Club for tweens, recommended for ages 10-12.

Pick up a copy of Island of the Blue Dolphins by Scott O'Dell and Number the Stars by Lois Lowry and join us December 10 at 2:30 to discuss the book, share a snack and book related activity.

Island of the Blue Dolphins:

Left alone on a beautiful but isolated island off the coast of California, a young Indian girl spends eighteen years, not only merely surviving through her enormous courage and self-reliance, but also finding a measure of happiness in her solitary life.

Number the Stars:

In 1943, during the German occupation of Denmark, ten-year-old Annemarie learns how to be brave and courageous when she helps shelter her Jewish friend from the Nazis.

Tech Time with Keith

Tech Time with Keith is a free STEAM program series for Middle Schoolers every Thursday at 3:00 !

Cover 2 Cover

Pick up your copy of This Dark Road to Mercy by Wiley Cash and join the "Cover 2 Cover" book club on Thursday, December 19 at 1:30 pm.

"After their mother's unexpected death, twelve-year-old Easter and her six-year-old sister Ruby are adjusting to life in foster care when their errant father, Wade, suddenly appears. Since Wade signed away his legal rights, the only way he can get his daughters back is to steal them away in the night.

Brady Weller, the girls' court-appointed guardian, begins looking for Wade, and he quickly turns up unsettling information linking Wade to a recent armored car heist, one with a whopping $14.5 million missing. But Brady Weller isn't the only one hunting the desperate father. Robert Pruitt, a shady and mercurial man nursing a years-old vendetta, is also determined to find Wade and claim his due.

Narrated by a trio of alternating voices, This Dark Road to Mercy is a story about the indelible power of family and the primal desire to outrun a past that refuses to let go."

Marion Librarian, the town librarian
