LIBRARY LIVE

MARION COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY SYSTEM MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

During March, people in the United States celebrate the achievements and history of women as part of Women's History Month.

Women's History Month provides an opportunity to honor the generations of trailblazing women and girls who have built our Nation, shaped our progress, and strengthened our character as a people. Throughout our history, despite hardship, exclusion, and discrimination, women have strived and sacrificed for equity and equality in communities across the country.

From science to politics, it's a chance to reflect on the trailblazing women who lead the way for change.

Here are some ways to celebrate:

- Support female entrepreneurs
- Read books by female authors
- Listen to podcasts such as Stuff Mom Never Told You
- Support a women's nonprofit organization

Did you know we have ton of board games at the library for you to check out? We even just got some new ones in, so check out our large display at the Fairmont branch!

Many table gamers say they play to unwind and relax. Of course, many board games lead to bouts of laughter and have you competing with your friends.

Maybe you are new to board games, or haven't played much beyond Monopoly. Maybe the selection of games at the library is overwhelming and you aren't sure where to start. If that's the case, we are here to help!

Boardgamearena.com has hundreds of free board games to play. With an easy to use matchmaking interface and tutorial videos, it's a great way to see if board gaming is for you. For game reviews, how-to-play videos, and top 10 lists, search "The Dice Tower" on YouTube. All of our games have QR codes inside the box to link you to a how-to-play video as well. And if you are more of a hands-on learner, feel free to contact Dan Ward at 304-366-1210 extension 128 to help you with learning a new game or join us for Game Night (adults) every Wednesday starting at 5:00 p.m. at the Fairmont branch!

New digital resource: Ground News

Accusations, polarization, and overt bias: it's everywhere. You can't turn on the news without witnessing a spectacle of diverse opinions. Most commonly, the reporter at-bat is calling the shots. The truth is, our society gives center stage to the person with the mic. News reporting isn't an arena of debate or thoughtful arguments. When you turn on the news, you are hearing one person's side of the story. And that hardly contributes to a well-rounded perspective.

Bias is there. It is present in every news story you read, watch or hear. That doesn't mean the news is without merit or credibility. It does mean that you need a better and more informed way to take in the news each day. The goal is not to rid the world of all bias but rather to see it for what it is. That's what Ground News empowers you to do.

Ground News is a one-stop shop for news content that analyzes daily breaking stories in real time from thousands of sources – around the world. Ground News reads between the lines of media bias and breaks free of the algorithm. It allows users to compare media outlets with different political ideologies.

Initial access requires a referral code; contact us at 304-366-1210 ext. 120 or ext. 121 to receive a code.
