MUSIC INSPIRED BOARD BOOKS

- Wee Sing & Learn Bugs* by Pamela Conn Beall Children can read and sing along with lovable hosts, such as the Ladybug and Inchworm, as they lead the way through a musical adventure that teaches about all kinds of bugs as it entertains. (Fairview, BB BEA)
- I Ain't Gonna Paint No More!* By Karen Beaumont When told not to paint the walls, this spirited, creative child paints himself instead! A perfect story for the oversized board book format, to the tune of "It Ain't Gonna Rain No More." (Fairmont, BB BEA)
- Musical Instruments* by Christophe Boncens An interactive way to discover the different sounds of five musical instruments! (Mannington, BB BON)
- Your Personal Penguin* by Sandra Boynton Penguin wants nothing more than to be Hippo's friend. (Bookmobile, BB BOY)
- The Ants Go Marching* by Priscilla Burris A group of ants marches while taking food away from a rained-out picnic in an illustrated version of the classic song. (Fairview, BB BUR)
- The Chicks in the Barn* by Aly Fronis Presents a farm-themed twist on the classic children's song "The Wheels on the Bus" that is filled with noisy animals. (Fairview, BB FRO)
- Duck and Goose, Let's Dance!* by Tad Hills Want to learn the Duck & Goose song and dance? Join Duck & Goose at their dance party. With easy-to-follow moves, like first jump forward and then jump back, "Duck & Goose, Let's Dance" is sure to get little bodies wiggling. Put on your dancing shoes and get ready to "walk like a duck, honk like a goose, and flap your fuzzy goose feathers, too." (Fairmont, BB HIL)
- The Eensy-Weensy Spider* by Mary Ann Hoberman This singsong poem extends Eensy-Weensy's story beyond the drain pipe and through a spring day of adventures. In a board book version perfect for little hands, this book can be enjoyed by a whole new audience of babies and toddlers. (Bookmobile, BB HOB)
- Quiet Bunny* by Lisa McCue Quiet Bunny loves the sounds of the forest: the birds chirping, the wind whispering shhhhh through the leaves, and, especially, the night song all the rabbits listen to. But, one day, he wonders: how can I join in? It takes a wise owl to help Quiet Bunny find the wonderful beat that's his and his alone. (Mannington, BB MCC)
- Sing-along Songs* illustrated by Holly Russell Presents illustrated lyrics to thirteen classic children's songs. (Fairview, BB SIN)

MUSIC INSPIRED PICTURE BOOKS

- Trombone Shorty* by Troy Andrews Hailing from the Treme neighborhood of New Orleans, where music always floated in the air, Troy "Trombone Shorty" Andrews didn't always have the money to buy an instrument, but he did have the dream to play music. This is the story of how he made his dream take flight. (Fairmont, JE AND)
- Hog Wild! A Frenzy of Dance Music* by Sandra Boynton Features a variety of song types from gotta-dance, to sassy, to sweet and endearing, and includes a CD featuring a roster of superstars singing the songs. (Mannington, JE BOY)
- Drum Dream Girl: How One Girl's Courage Changed Music* by Margarita Engle Follows a girl in the 1920s as she strives to become a drummer, despite being continually reminded that only boys play the drums, and that there has never been a female drummer in Cuba. (Fairmont, JE ENG)
- Born to Swing: Lil Hardin Armstrong's Life in Jazz* by Mara Rockliff Presents the life of the jazz musician, describing her love of music as a child, her work as a composer and musician in Chicago, her marriage to Louis Armstrong, and her collaboration with some of the greatest jazz musicians of her era. (Fairview, JE ROC)
- The Music of Life* by Elizabeth Rusch Presents the life of the inventor of the piano, explaining why, how, and when he created the musical instrument. (Fairview, JE RUS)
- Hiccupotamus* by Steve Smallman The jungle animals are having a musical celebration! Mouse squeaks, Bird tweets, and Centipede taps his feet. Then more animals hear the music and want to join in, as Monkey, Warthog, and Crocodile bring their own music-making talents to the group. But what is that silly Hippo doing? (Fairview, JE SMA)
- Passing the Music Down* by Sarah Sullivan A boy and his family befriend a country fiddler, who teaches the boy all about playing the old tunes, which the boy promises to help keep alive. Inspired by Melvin Wine and Jake Krack. (Fairmont, JE SUL)
- Imani's Music* by Sharon Williams Imani, an African grasshopper, brings music to the new world when he travels aboard a slave ship. (Fairmont, JE WIL)
- Esquivel! Space-Age Sound Artist* by Susan Wood Juan Garcia Esquivel was born in Mexico and grew up to the sounds of mariachi bands. He loved music and became a musical explorer. Defying convention, he created music that made people laugh and planted images in their minds. (Fairview, JE WOO)
- Street Music* by Harriet Ziefert City street, city feet, city stoop, be-bop boop! There's music everywhere in the city--drumming, strumming, tapping and rapping. Children will dance to the sounds of this jazzy, sassy rhythmic text! (Fairmont, JE ZIE)

MUSIC INSPIRED JF LIT

- Bud, Not Buddy* by Christopher Paul Curtis Ten-year-old Bud, a motherless boy living in Flint, Michigan, during the Great Depression, escapes a bad foster home and sets out in search of the man he believes to be his father--the renowned bandleader, H.E. Calloway of Grand Rapids. (Fairmont, Fairview, Mannington, JF CUR)
- Five, Six, Seven, Nate!* by Tim Federle Armed with a one-way ticket to New York City, small-town theater geek Nate is off to start rehearsals for E.T.: The Broadway Musical. It's everything he ever practiced his autograph for. But as thrilling as Broadway is, rehearsals are nothing like Nate expects: full of intimidating child stars, cut-throat understudies, and a director who can't even remember Nate's name. (Fairmont, Fairview, JF FED)
- The Other Side of Summer* by Emily Gale Summer's father moves their family to Australia after the sudden death of her brother Floyd, and the only thing that keeps her grounded is Floyd's guitar, which was miraculously unharmed in the bombing that killed him. (Fairmont, JF GAL)
- The Music Thief* by Peni R. Griffin Living in San Antonio, Texas, eleven-year-old Alma tries to cope with the drive-by shooting death of her favorite Latina singer, as well as deal with the struggles of her various family members, and finds herself doing something she knows is wrong. (Fairmont, JF GRI)
- Garvey's Choice* by Nikki Grimes Preferring science and reading to the sports his father wants him to play, Garvey comforts himself with food and endures bullying before joining the school chorus, where he learns how to accept himself and bond with his father. (Fairview, JF GRI)
- The Song From Somewhere Else* by A.F. Harrold Frank doesn't know how to feel when Nick Underbridge rescues her from bullies one afternoon. No one likes Nick. He's big, he's weird and he smells - or so everyone in Frank's class thinks. And yet, there's something nice about Nick's house. There's strange music playing there, and it feels light and good and makes Frank feel happy for the first time in forever. But there's more to Nick, and to his house, than meets the eye, and soon Frank realizes she isn't the only one keeping secrets. Or the only one who needs help? (Fairmont, Fairview, JF HAR)
- Blackbird Fly* by Erin Entrada Kelly Bullied at school, eighth-grader Apple, a Filipino American who loves the music of the Beatles, decides to change her life by learning how to play the guitar. (Fairmont, JF KEL)
- Frankie Rocks the House* by Paul Martin Frankie loves to sing and dance so Professor Von Skalpel devises a plan to get him a recording deal by covering up Frankie's monster-like appearance. (Fairview, JF MAR)
- Totally Unrelated* by Tom Ryan After spending years languishing in his family's Celtic music band, Neil forms a rock band with his friend Bert and steps into the spotlight. (Fairmont, JF RYA)
- Echo* by Pam Muñoz Ryan Decades after a man is entwined in a prophecy-based quest involving three mysterious sisters and a harmonica, three individuals from different areas of the world confront daunting challenges involving the same harmonica. (Fairmont, JF RYA)
- A Crooked Kind of Perfect* by Linda Urban Ten-year-old Zoe Elias, who longs to play the piano but must resign herself to learning the organ, instead, finds that her musicianship has a positive impact on her workaholic mother, her jittery father, and her school social life. (Fairview, Mannington, JF URB)
- Clayton Byrd Goes Underground* by Rita Williams-Garcia Feeling most alive when he plays music with his grandfather, aspiring bluesman Clayton Byrd is devastated when his grandfather passes away and his mother forbids him from playing the blues, losses that compel him to run away in the hope of joining other bluesmen on the road. (Fairmont, JF WIL)

MUSIC INSPIRED YA LIT

- The Haters* by Jesse Andrews A road trip adventure about a trio of jazz-camp escapees who, against every realistic expectation, become a band. (Fairview, Mannington, YA AND)
- Wise Young Fool* by Sean Beaudoin A teenaged guitarist in a rock band deals with loss and anger as he relates the events that landed him in a juvenile detention center. (Fairmont, YA BEA)
- Audrey, Wait!* by Robin Benway While trying to score a date with her cute co-worker at the Scooper Dooper, sixteen-year-old Audrey gains unwanted fame and celebrity status when her ex-boyfriend, a rock musician, records a breakup song about her that soars to the top of the Billboard charts. (Fairmont, YA BEN)
- Just Listen* by Sarah Dessen Isolated from friends who believe the worst because she has not been truthful with them, sixteen-year-old Annabel finds an ally in classmate Owen, whose honesty and passion for music help her to face and share what really happened at the end-of-the-year party that changed her life. (Mannington, YA DES)
- The Musician's Daughter* by Susanne Dunlap In eighteenth-century Vienna, Austria, fifteen-year-old Theresa seeks a way to help her mother and brother financially while investigating the murder of her father, a renowned violinist in Haydn's orchestra at the court of Prince Esterhazy, after his body is found near a gypsy camp. (Bookmobile, YA DUN)
- Breakout* by Kevin Emerson Fourteen-year-old eighth-grader Anthony Castillo uses "f-bombs" in the angst-ridden song he writes for his rock band, the Rusty Soles, and while it becomes an instant viral hit, he must decide if being a hero is worth the trouble that singing it on Arts Night would cause. (Fairmont, YA EME)
- For the Record* by Charlotte Huang As the new lead singer of the band Melbourne, Chelsea has only the summer tour to make the band—and their fans—love her, or it is back to boring high school. (Mannington, YA HUA)
- Virtuosity* by Jessica Martinez Just before the most important violin competition of her career, seventeen-year-old prodigy Carmen faces critical decisions about her anti-anxiety drug addiction, her controlling mother, and a potential romance with her most talented rival. (Fairmont, YA MAR)
- Kill the Boy Band* by Goldy Moldavsky Four fangirls of The Ruperts, sneak away to a hotel in Manhattan to see their favorite boy band, but when one of them literally drags Rupert Pierpont to their room and they tie him up, things get complicated—and when Rupert is killed things go from bad to worse. (Fairview, YA MOL)
- The Sky is Everywhere* by Jandy Nelson In the months after her sister dies, seventeen-year-old Lennie falls into a love triangle and discovers the strength to follow her dream of becoming a musician. (Fairmont, Mannington, YA NEL)
- Note worthy* by Riley Redgate Feeling undervalued because of musical talents that place her outside the spotlight, Jordan disguises herself as a boy to gain entry into a competitive, all-male a cappella group that is looking for a singer with her vocal range. (Fairmont, YA RED)
- This Song Will Save Your Life* by Leila Sales Nearly a year after a failed suicide attempt, sixteen-year-old Elise discovers that she has the passion, and the talent, to be a disc jockey. (Fairmont, YA SAL)
- After Tupac & D Foster* by Jacqueline Woodson In the New York City borough of Queens in 1996, three girls bond over their shared love of Tupac Shakur's music, as together they try to make sense of the unpredictable world in which they live. (Fairmont, YA WOO)

Join us to solve the mystery of legendary jazz singer Ella E. Reader. Unfortunately Ella recently gave her "final performance", and revealed in her last will that she hid her fortune in the basement of the old library, leaving clues that only a true music lover could unravel. Recent budget cuts have closed the library and it is soon to be demolished to make room for a Starbucks. Your team of adventurers has one hour to locate the hidden fortune before the wrecking ball arrives to bury it forever. Can you find the treasure and save the library from destruction? Can you find the Treasure in the Stacks?

Due to the complexity of the puzzles, only recommended for teens 15+ and adults.

Sponsored by The Friends of the Marion County Public Library

MUSIC INSPIRED FICTION

- Nashville Chrome* by Rick Bass Maxine, Bonnie, and Jim Ed Brown are a family act with a hit record sitting atop 1959's country music charts. But celebrity has its price, and the times ahead will deliver more than their fair share of bumps in the road. (Fairmont, Fairview, LP BAS)
- Sing Me Home* by Jerri Corgiat Lilac O'Malley Ryan doesn't even recognize country music star Jonathan Van Castle when he bursts into her store. And she's bewildered by what seem like tongue-tied attempts at charm. She just wants to make a sale-and get him out the door. But it turns out to be a lot harder getting that to-die-for smile out of her mind... (Fairmont, PB COR)
- Murder on Music Row* by Stuart Dill Twenty-three-year-old Judd Nix, an unpaid intern at the most prestigious personal management firm in country music, gets the opportunity of a lifetime when his boss and mentor, Simon Stills, offers him a temporary position- an opportunity that may just cost Judd his life. (Fairmont, F DIL)
- A Visit From the Goon Squad* by Jennifer Egan Working side-by-side for a record label, former punk rocker Bennie Salazar and the passionate Sasha hide illicit secrets from one another while interacting with a motley assortment of equally troubled people from 1970s San Francisco to the post-war future. (Fairmont, F EGA)
- A Plain Love Song* by Kelly Irvin Adah wants nothing more than to sing and play the guitar and write her own songs. That's a dream that will never come true in the confines of her strict Amish community. But then she meets Jackson, and all of a sudden she has the chance for a different life. (Fairmont, F IRV; Fairview, INS IRV; Mannington, LP IRV)
- One More Song to Sing* by Lindsay Harrel More than two decades ago, Olivia Lovett left her old life behind in Oklahoma and forged a career in Nashville as a country music star. Now her voice is failing, forcing her to find a new dream just as the secrets of her past come knocking at the door. (Fairmont, F HOF; Fairview, INS HOF; Mannington, LP HOF)
- A Distant Music* by B.J. Hoff In a small Kentucky coal mining town in the late 1800s, hope is found in the hearts of the vibrant Maggie and her fragile friend Summer. When Jonathan's cherished flute is stolen, the girls search for a way to restore his music, and the community rediscovers the gifts of faith and friendship. (Fairmont, F IRV; Fairview, INS IRV; Mannington, LP HOF)
- The Music Shop* by Rachel Joyce Set in 1988, her new title features record store owner Frank, who can find exactly the record each customer needs among vinyl-only merchandise ranging from classical to punk. Ilse Brauchmann is a different sort of customer altogether; she wants Frank to tell her about music itself. (Fairview, F JOY)
- Listen to Me* by Kristen Proby Determined to make her new restaurant a rousing success by offering live music, Addison Wade gets more than she bargains for when former rock star Jake Keller convinces her to give him the weekend gig--and take a chance on love--but when his past catches up to him, things may end on a sour note between them. (Fairmont, F PRO)
- Delta Belles* by Penelope J. Stokes In 1965, four best friends at a Mississippi college form a singing group and call themselves The Delta Belles. Twenty-five years later, the Belles are asked to get back together for their college reunion. As the old friends reconnect, they come to a new understanding of the meaning and value of their lives. (Fairmont, F STO)
