TRACE YOUR ROOTS

Did you know that in addition to stopping by the Marion County Genealogical Club location at the Marion County Public Library, you can also use MCPLS databases to research your family history? Visit mcpls.org/research today to get started!

America's Genealogy Bank:

Easily search and browse millions of genealogies, obituaries, marriage and birth announcements and more from 1652 to the present. Includes historical newspapers, books and documents, along with modern obituaries and the Social Security Death Index.

Ancestry Library Edition:

This resource is available for use inside the library only. Ancestry Library Edition delivers over 4 billion records in census data, vital records, directories, photos, and more for individuals from North America, Europe, Australia, and more.

Heritage Quest Genealogy:

Heritage Quest includes digitized US census records from 1790-1930, along with digitized genealogy and local history books, Revolutionary War pension and bounty land warrant files, Freedman's Bank records, and a periodical source index.

WV Archives and History:

The site features primary and secondary source documents, photographs, and databases; lists collections and other materials available in the State Archives; and provides research guides and assistance for genealogists.

Robotics: Fairmont

Suitable for children in grades 3 through 5, or for families to do together. We will be using Lego WeDo's to make Milo the Science Rover! This is a great introductory lesson for those who have not done Lego Robotics before, but may be a repeat class for those who have.

Tuesday, January 8 at 4:30 pm. Limited to 20 people, call 304-366-1210 to sign up, or follow this link: <http://bit.ly/2A6fr2F>

3D Printing: Fairmont

This program is designed for 4th grade and up. In this project, you can design your own unique snowflake to be 3D printed. Those who have participated in our previous classes will have freedom to use the skills they have developed, while newcomers can still create a unique ornament of their own. Participants will be notified Via email to pick up their 3D printed objects in the weeks following this program. Limited to 12 people.

Celebrations Around the World

To kick off the spring term of story hour, we will have two special Saturday story hours. These events are open to any preschool age children, but all three of the story hour classes are encouraged to come to these events. The first is "Celebrations Around the World" on January 12 at 10:30 am. We'll explore all the various celebrations happening this time of year with lots of fun surprises!

The second one will be February 2 as we welcome the Groundhog's prediction for the winter season. We'll talk about hibernation and groundhogs. We will also explore the fun of shadows with shadow books! Lights off for a fun way to share books! For more information contact Christian at 304-366-1210, extension 113.

Story Hour Returns

Story Hour returns the week of February 4. Story Hour meets Wednesdays at 4:30 pm and Thursdays or Fridays at 10:30 am. If you have already signed up for the fall term, you do not need to register again.

Story Hour is open for preschool age children, generally 3-5 years of age. For more information contact Christian at 304-366-1210, extension 113.

Baby Time & Toddler Time

Baby Time (0-18 months) and Toddler Time (18-36 months) classes return the week of February 4! Babies will enjoy songs, fingerplays, sensory crafts, and playtime. Toddlers will have fun with songs, stories, crafts, games, experiments, and snacks.

Baby and Toddler times promote the development of fine motor skills, language, problem-solving, cognitive reasoning, and social skills, all wrapped up in the guise of play!

For more information, please contact Julie Mike at 304-366-1210, extension 118 or by emailing jmike@mcpls.org.

'Tween the Pages

Students in grades 5-8: We'll be meeting Monday, February 11 at 3:30 pm to discuss Louisiana's Way Home by Kate DiCamillo. Stop by the front desk starting January 1 to check out a copy!

"When Louisiana Elefante's granny wakes her up in the middle of the night to tell her that the day of reckoning has arrived and they have to leave home immediately, Louisiana isn't overly worried. After all, Granny has many middle-of-the-night ideas. But this time, things are different. This time, Granny intends for them never to return. Separated from her best friends, Raymie and Beverly, Louisiana struggles to oppose the winds of fate (and Granny) and find a way home." -Amazon

Awesome Readers Club

Teens: We'll be meeting Monday, February 11 at 5 pm to discuss American Panda by Gloria Chao.

Stop by the front desk starting January 1 to pick up your copy of the book!

"At seventeen, Mei should be in high school, but skipping fourth grade was part of her parents' master plan. Now a freshman at MIT, she is on track to fulfill the rest of this pre-determined future: become a doctor, marry a preapproved Taiwanese Ivy Leaguer, produce a litter of babies.

With everything her parents have sacrificed to make her cushy life a reality, Mei can't bring herself to tell them the truth—that she (1) hates germs, (2) falls asleep in biology lectures, and (3) has a crush on her classmate Darren Takahashi, who is decidedly not Taiwanese.

But when Mei reconnects with her brother, Xing, who is estranged from the family for dating the wrong woman, Mei starts to wonder if all the secrets are truly worth it.

Can she find a way to be herself, whoever that is, before her web of lies unravels? " -Amazon

Snow Place Like the Library

It's January, and the now annual "Snowflake Celebration" is back! This program is open to children ages 2-5 and will be held on January 15 at 11 am. Space is limited so registration is a must and can be completed by contacting the Fairview Library or going online at mcpls.org/library-events.

Cook-a-Book

It's also time to kick off the 2019 edition of "Cook-a-Book." On January 18 at 11 am, Ms. Terri will be featuring crafts, games, and DIY snacks featuring the theme of "Let It Snow, Man!" Juvenile patrons ages 6-12 are eligible for this program and must be registered to participate.

Where's the Fire

Our monthly guessing game at the Circulation Desk is "Where's the Fire?" The patron who comes closest to guessing the number of Atomic Fireballs in the jar without going over wins!

What Do You Know About That? Trivia Contest

Our trivia buffs are invited to join us on January 31 from 10 am – 4 pm for the "True or False: Greatest Hits Edition" of the monthly trivia contest. We're taking questions from previous quizzes dating back to 2013 to create this round of head scratchers. Patrons ages 14 and older are eligible to participate, and the patron with the most correct answers wins a prize!

Speaking of Books

Our monthly book club, "Speaking of Books," returns on January 22 at 4 pm to review John Grisham's Gray Mountain.

"The year is 2008 and Samantha Kofer's career at a huge Wall Street law firm is on the fast track—until the recession hits and she is downsized, furloughed, and escorted out of the building. Samantha, though, is offered an opportunity to work at a legal aid clinic for one year without pay, all for a slim chance of getting rehired.

In a matter of days Samantha moves from Manhattan to Brady, Virginia, population 2,200, in the heart of Appalachia, a part of the world she has only read about. Samantha's new job takes her into the murky and dangerous world of coal mining, where laws are often broken, communities are divided, and the land itself is under attack. But some of the locals aren't so thrilled to have a big-city lawyer in town, and within weeks Samantha is engulfed in litigation that turns deadly.

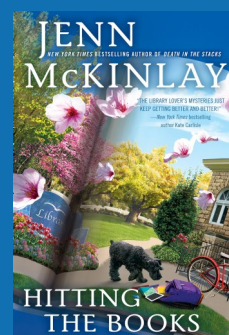

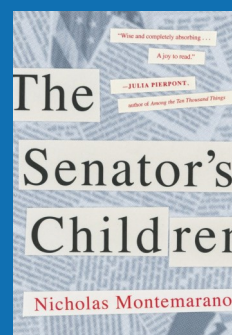

Because like most small towns, Brady harbors big secrets that some will kill to conceal." -Amazon

Challenge Accepted, Patron Approved

With another successful "Secret Santa Reading Challenge" behind us, we've once again taken our participants' recommendations for a good read and placed them in our "Readers Recommend" display.

Featured titles have all received a "thumbs up" from our patrons and are looking for a new round of fans. If you're into contemporary romance, try Christina Lauren's Roomies. Are you more of a Christian historical fiction reader? Then take a look at Sigmund Brouwer's Thief of Glory. For literary fiction aficionados, there's The Senator's Children by Nicholas Montemarano, or Jenn McKinlay's Hitting the Books for those who enjoy cozy mysteries/gentle reads.

1-on-1 Tech Help

Adults can get hands on help during our 1-on-1 Technology Time!

Meeting at the library every Thursday at 2:00 pm, this is a designated time for adults to get help with their mobile devices.

Toddler Time & Story Time

We're Hooked on Story Time! Learning to read begins before children start school. From the time they are infants, children learn language and other important skills that will help them learn to read. Developing early literacy skills makes it easier for children to learn to read once they begin school.

Spring sessions to resume in February: "Toddler Time" a program for children up to 3 years of age meets on Tuesdays at 10:30 am, and "Story Time" a program for children 2-5 years of age meets on Tuesdays at 12:30 and/or Wednesdays at 10:30.

You may register when you are visiting the library, or by calling 304-986-2803. We thank you for registering, so we can be prepared for you!

Friends of the Library

Winter Break: grab an old friend at the Friends Book Sale and let it snow! Friends Book Sale is open every week Friday 10-4 and Saturday 9-1.

How the Friends Book Sale supports the Mannington Library:

The Friends co-supported the library's Story Time incentives for the Fall Session; awarding twenty-six children with participation gifts. Thank you, Friends.

Van Gogh & Goodies

Wintry Relaxation; enjoy an evening of adult coloring with Carol; January 28, 5:00 pm.

Cover 2 Cover

Pick up your copy of The Red Tent by Anita Diamant at Mannington Library and join the "Cover 2 Cover" book club on Thursday, January 17 at 1:30 p.m.

"Her name is Dinah. In the Bible, her life is only hinted at in a brief and violent detour within the more familiar chapters of the Book of Genesis that tell of her father, Jacob, and his twelve sons.

Told in Dinah's voice, Anita Diamant imagines the traditions and turmoils of ancient womanhood--the world of the red tent. It begins with the story of the mothers--Leah, Rachel, Zilpah, and Bilhah--the four wives of Jacob.

They love Dinah and give her gifts that sustain her through childhood, a calling to midwifery, and a new home in a foreign land. Dinah's story reaches out from a remarkable period of early history and creates an intimate connection with the past."

-Amazon

Tech Time with Keith

3D Printing, Lego Robotics, and more! Free STEAM programming for Middle Schoolers every Thursday at 3:30

Fiction Addiction

Fiction Addiction is books, food and FUN! If you are interested joining this teen book club, pick up a copy of Air Awakens by Elise Kova and join us January 14 at 3:30 for the book discussion, craft and FOOD!

"The Solaris Empire is one conquest away from uniting the continent, and the rare elemental magic sleeping in seventeen-year-old library apprentice Vhalla Yarl could shift the tides of war.

Vhalla has always been taught to fear the Tower of Sorcerers, a mysterious magic society, and has been happy in her quiet world of books. But after she unknowingly saves the life of one of the most powerful sorcerers of them all--the Crown Prince Aldrik--she finds herself enticed into his world. Now she must decide her future: Embrace her sorcery and leave the life she's known, or eradicate her magic and remain as she's always been. And with powerful forces lurking in the shadows, Vhalla's indecision could cost her more than she ever imagined." -Amazon
