November Events

Most events will be held virtually, due to COVID-19

All branches are closed Wednesday, November 11 and November 26-28.

Winter Hours start November 30!

Events for All Ages: Mannington Friends of the Library Book Sale

1001 Things to be Thankful for: Books, books, books, books...

Friends of the Mannington Public Library Quarterly Meeting: Nov. 9 at 6:00, please plan to join us.

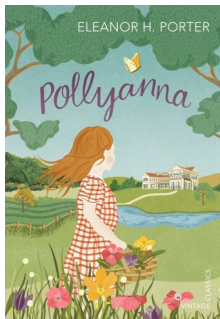

Friends Book Sale is open Fridays 9-1 and Saturdays 9-12 with the exception of Mannington Public Library holiday closings. Card holding members receive discounted prices and more. You can get your membership card with your donation of annual "Friends" dues while visiting the Friends Book Sale Room or the library today!

Fairmont Friends of the Library Book Sale

The Book Cave is Open! The Friends of the Marion County Public Library (Fairmont) will be making appointments for 2 people per half hour to browse the book sale room.

This month's dates are Tuesday, November 10 and Saturday, November 14! Check out their Facebook Page for updates, or contact book.cave.news@gmail.com for appointment availability!

"Beyond the Book" Book Club: Family Read

To slow things down as we enter the hectic holiday season, Beyond the Book Club is hosting our first Family Read – Pollyanna, by Eleanor H. Porter.

All ages are encouraged to participate! This title is a quick and cheerful read for our regular members and students, and a great read aloud selection for the whole family to enjoy. For our Beyond the Book activity, members should also view the Masterpiece Theatre adaptation of the novel through Hoopla prior to our discussion. Both the novel and video will be discussed at this virtual meeting, to be held Monday, November 16 at 7 pm.

The book and movie are available to borrow digitally on Hoopla!

This virtual event is open to all ages via Webex, a user-friendly conferencing platform.

Events for Kids:

Kids Vote

Head to mcpls.org/KidsVote for the official ballot of our 2020 Kids Vote! Youngsters can vote for everything from favorite TV show to favorite fast food place. Mr. Cox will reveal the winners during a special Facebook Live event on November 5 at 10:30 am!

One Book, One Community

Wednesday, November 18 is our first "One Book, One Community" Reads event! Join us on Facebook Live at 10:30 am as staff reads "We're Different, We're the Same, and We're All Wonderful" by Bobbi Jane Kates.

Read-along with us in your own free copy of the book, available to be picked up any of the Marion County Library branches while supplies last. Limit one per family. You can also join the "One Book, One Community: Kids & Families (Marion County WV)" Facebook group. For more information, check out mcpls.org/onebook

Little Rembrandts

Youth (age ten and up) are invited to join Mrs. Julie in this virtual event and learn how to transform a blank canvas into a cute reindeer. Space is limited.

Registered participants can pick up a canvas at their local branch of the Marion County Public Library System during the week of Nov. 9

For the supply list and to sign up, visit www.mcpls.org/events

Facebook Live Story Time

Join us for the start of our Fall Storytime on Facebook Live. Mr. Christian and others will be sharing lots of fun stories and activities! Every Tuesday at 10:30 am, no sign up required.

Story Time Craft Club

Pre-K and K-1 children are also encouraged to register for the Storytime Craft Club! Mrs. Julie and others have a lot of fun crafts planned this fall for our friends. Every Tuesday on Facebook Live, immediately following Facebook Live Story Time (around 11 am).

All are welcome to join us in this virtual event. However, we do hope that many of you will sign up for our Story Time Craft Club. Members can come by the library weekly to get your surprise bag to open with us during Craft time!

Register at www.mcpls.org/events so we know which library you'd like to use as a pick up location!

November Events

Most events will be held virtually, due to COVID-19

Events for T(w)eens: NaNoWriMo Young Writers

November 2, 9, 16, 23, 30: NaNoWriMo Young Writers Guild Write-In (Online, 3:30 pm)

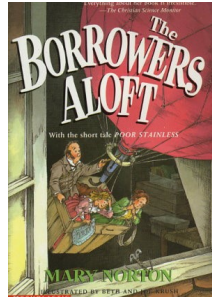

November is National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo). Will you accept the challenge to try to write a novel in a month? Join us as we have fun and learn new tools and tips weekly to help teens in their writing endeavors.

For more info, contact Connie VanGilder at 304-366-1210, extension 129 or cvangilder@mcpls.org!

The Book Pack

The Book Pack is a new book club for tweens at the Mannington Public Library, recommended for ages 10-13.

Pick up a copy of The Borrowers Aloft by Mary Norton and register to join us November 17 at 1:30 to discuss the book and share a book related activity. Participants must register and agree to the library's Covid-19 guidelines.

Events for Teens & Adults: Discover: Sewing

Join us on Zoom to hand sew a "sugar cookie" pin cushion. We will be practicing the techniques that we learned in October's class and using them to make our first project!

Participants need to register and provide a valid email address. They also need to indicate the Marion County branch where they wish to pick-up their craft kit, beginning on Nov. 6.

Each kit will contain assorted felt fabric and some stuffing. In addition to the supplies in the kit, participants will need some needles and thread. Visit www.mcpls.org/events to sign up!

One Book, One Community

Join the discussion of Just Mercy in our "One Book, One Community: Adults & Teens (Marion County WV)" Facebook group.

For more information, check out mcpls.org/onebook

Fall Leaf Banner Craft

Join us on Tuesday, November 24 at 4:30 pm on Zoom to make a burlap and jute garland with a gorgeous custom leaf stamp that you will make! This craft does require the use of scissors and craft knives. Adult supervision is required for any tweens or teens who would like to participate.

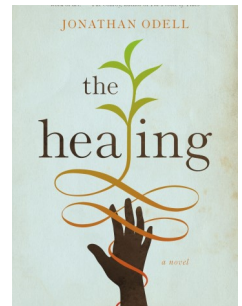

Participants need to provide a valid email to which the meeting invitation will be sent just prior to the Zoom event. Registrants also need to indicate which Marion County branch that they wish to pick-up supplies from, beginning on Tuesday Nov. 17.

We will provide the burlap, foam and jute. Participants will need to secure their own tools for cutting and paint supplies.

Events for Adults: Speaking of Books

Join us Tuesday, November 3, in person at the Fairview Public Library, or by phone or computer, as we discuss The Healing by Jonathan Odell.

The number of in-person members will be limited to 6 people. This event will be socially distanced, and masks will be required.

Graphic Novel Book Club

Join the Graphic Novel Book Club's discussion of the first volume of Alan Moore and Kevin O'Neil's League of Extraordinary Gentlemen on Monday, November 9 at 7 pm.

Follow the adventures of literary figures, Allan Quatermain, Mina Murray, Dr. Henry and Edward Jekyll, Captain Nemo, and the Invisible Man as they team up (sometimes reluctantly) to solve mysteries and crimes in a late Victorian England. The graphic novel contains mature content, and reader's discretion is strongly advised. The volume can be accessed through Hoopla!

Also, please consider joining the "MCPLS Graphic Novel Book Club" Facebook group, where we post news, submit suggestions, and vote for the next book club selection.

November Events

Most events will be held virtually, due to COVID-19

Cover2Cover Book Club

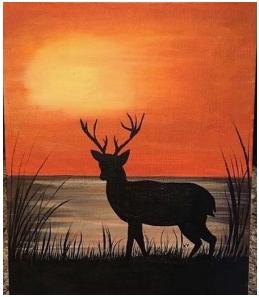

In the face of the misery in his homeland, the artist Masuji Ono was unwilling to devote his art solely to the celebration of physical beauty. Instead, he put his work in the service of the imperialist movement that led Japan into World War II.

Pick up your copy of the Nobel Prize winning book An Artist of the Floating World by Kazuo Ishiguro at Mannington Library and join the "Cover 2 Cover" book club on Thursday, Nov. 19 at 1:30 p.m. Participants must register and agree to the library's Covid 19 guidelines.

Artible: Buck Season

It's buck season! Whether you are an adult with little or much painting experience, you can join this virtual painting class. Just gather your supplies and register with an active email by noon on November 19.

Registered participants can pick up a 9 x 12 canvas at their local branch of the Marion County Public Library System starting the week of Nov. 2.

Other supplies needed are:

Paints: Red, yellow, orange, black, white, brown
Brushes: 1" flat, angle, liner, filbert

Sign up at www.mcpls.org/events

Crafty Creations with Carol

Annual "Deck the Halls" Greenery Craft (Adults Only)

Register to join Carol at the Mannington Public Library on November 16 (5 pm). Carol will provide the supplies needed and you can bring any special embellishments you have at home. Participants must register and agree to the library's Covid-19 guidelines. Sign up at mcpls.org/events

Tabletop Game Group

Missing our Wednesday Night Tabletop Game Group? Not to fear, WNG is happening virtually!

Please contact Dan Ward at dward@mcpls.org for more information on how to join the fun! WNG meets every Wednesday at 5 pm to play games like Dominant Species, Sagra, and Terraforming Mars.

November 4, 18, 25: 5 pm

A red rectangular graphic with a repeating pattern of small white leaves. At the top left, a cartoon beaver wearing a yellow vest and blue pants is sitting and reading a yellow book. Below the beaver, the word "FALL" is written in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. Underneath "FALL", the words "INTO READING" are written in orange, bold, sans-serif capital letters with a black outline. At the bottom, there is an orange banner with white text that reads "FALL / WINTER READING PROGRAM" and "SIGN UP AT: MCPLS.BOOKPOINTS.ORG". Below the banner, in smaller white text, it says "In honor of the Fall Reading program, get a free comic when you check out books, while supplies last!"
